Level 2 Award in Postural Care

Summary

The importance of providing safe, effective postural care cannot be underestimated. All those who have contact with individuals in need of good postural care, including family members and personal assistants, need a sound understanding of how and why a person's body can change shape and how to introduce new positions safely and gently.

This course is for all those who work with and provide support for people who find it difficult to change position independently.

Lessons:

- Lesson 1: Identification of need
- Lesson 2: Pain and consent
- Lesson 3: Understanding postures – Hips, pelvis and leg distortions
- Lesson 4: Understanding postures – Chest distortions
- Lesson 5: Understanding postures – Sitting and lying
- Lesson 6: Understand 24 therapeutic positioning
- Lesson 7: Achieving thermal comfort
- Lesson 8: External factors affecting provision
